

Toronto Shootout 2024 Sponsorship Package

Toronto Shootout, formerly known as the UTFR (University of Toronto Formula Racing) Shootout, is an event with a rich history spanning over 20 years. The event consists of 15+ Formula SAE teams from across Canada and the USA competing for the fastest lap time on a kart track, which is a rare occasion for all the teams to run on an track designed to international standards.

We are committed to providing a space for Formula SAE teams with future engineers to showcase their hardwork and to compete amongst peers across North America.

To continue to organize successful shootout events for our community, we are seeking to expand our network of partners. Your involvement in our organization's journey will not only showcase your company's dedication to education and innovation but also position you as a driving force behind the advancement of engineering excellence.

In return for this sponsorship, we have many options available for you to accelerate your presence in the community.
